

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:
Another successful year is being completed at the Lemon Grove Schools. Over three hundred students are graduating from our junior high and are looking forward to even greater successes in high school.

Our school population has increased and is continuing to do so without resorting to double sessions. This is partly due to the new facilities that are being provided and the larger class loads for each teacher.

We continue to be a forward looking community; we have endorsed bond issues for new buildings, we have sponsored various community recreational programs for children — in short we want to provide superior education for our children.

But are classrooms enough? Don't we need teachers to fill these classrooms? Why did twenty-five per cent of our teachers resign this year? Can we fill these vacancies by offering below average teaching salaries?

Are we doing enough to keep our teaching staff? Are we allowing neighboring school districts and industries to entice our teachers, if so what are we going to do about this?

What is our school board doing about this situation? Are they allowing our district to deteriorate to a second class system?

(Name withheld for obvious reasons but the writer, a member of the district's teaching personnel, delivered the letter personally to the editor.)

School trustees last week increased teachers' pay by $15,000. They had asked $20,000. Lemon Grove minimum is now $3,900. For comparison SV-La Mesa is $4,000; Grossmont High is $4,200; El Cajon Valley pays $4,050 and San Diego is planning $4,000 minimum. Grove increments are $200 per year while other districts, except Grossmont High, are near $150. The district has lost 20 teachers of their 100 person staff but few because of the wage scale.

Teachers say the trustees and administrators are sincere, conscientious men. They further acknowledge that this year's budget was the toughest in history. To prove their point this editor told the two campaigning trustees last month that only a dedicated man would run for reelection to the school board. The proposed budget indicated an increase of 35%. If the budget is adopted, trustees will be explaining to local taxpayers for the life of the budget, if it is cut and produces a sub-standard teacher pay, you'll face a teacher problem all year.

The budget, with deep cuts in non-educational items, but increases in salaries, indicates, just prior to adoption, a tax rate of $1.87, up 9c from last year, a pretty careful piece of budget rope walking.

— Ed.

NAGEL SEES BOROUGH SYSTEM AS SOLUTION TO AREA'S PROBLEMS

Miles Nagel, La Mesa councilman and former mayor of that city, whose program time was usurped and reduced to a bare ten minutes several weeks ago by the steam generated in an informal discussion of the Broadway Improvement plan, picked up where he left off and developed the philosophy that a form of borough government would best serve greater San Diego, including Lemon Grove, Friday at the Men's Club.

Lemon Grove, he stated, needs such a government more than an incorporated city. "You must presently apply for local aid to a government which is by necessity non-local," he said.

A borough form of government would give integrity to boundaries; reduce cost of government; permit each community to maintain its identity, and give residents a voice in local government, he said. Nagel likened this form of government to that of the 48 states. He said that the various states handle their own problems but where the problem is national in scope, their representatives handle it on a national basis. Reduced to a region roughly made up of the

Grove Woman, Former Overseas Stewardess Vacationing in Lebanon

Emelia and David Mischler

A Lemon Grove housewife, Mrs. Herbert Mischler, 8141 Roy Street, has returned by air to her native Lebanon for the first time since she married an American GI. She will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Toufic, in Beirut.

With her is David, her 18 months old son. Left behind is her husband and two other sons, Michael, 5, and Gary, 3. Her husband is supervisor of Conval's experimental inspection department and he is presently on vacation.

"We had to time her trip with my vacation so I could babysit with the two other boys," Mischler grinned. "My vacation is three weeks, so her trip is three weeks."

Mrs. Mischler, who was at the time Emelia Toufic, is credited with having been Lebanon's first airlines stewardess. As such she met her husband in 1946, soon after France had relinquished control over Lebanon and airlines of that country became private enterprise. Emelia had obtained her job as stewardess partly because she was a linguist. She speaks fluent Turkish, Arabic, French and English, all of which she learned at a British high school.

At this time GI crew-chief Herbert Mischler had just been discharged from the Army Air Transport Command at Cairo, and was on his way to Baghdad to take a job as crewman with the Middle East Airlines. The weather was bad and the flight so rough that most of the passengers became ill. Mischler needed the stewardess in good, old-fashioned American style; blaming her for the rough trip and the passengers' illness. The stewardess, naturally, was Miss Toufic, who, like most young ladies of the East neither understand, nor care for Yankee horse-play.

So she took Mischler's complaints personally and turned in her resignation! It took some fast talking on Mischler's part to convince her he was only kidding. He kept on talking. He talked fast enough and long enough to convince her she ought to marry him.

They married in Beirut that year after a well chaperoned romance. Services were conducted by an Anglo-American minister

School Preliminary Budget Whacked $38,000 Rate To Be Increased By Nine Cents

It was not an altogether happy budget hearing Monday at the Lemon Grove Elementary School Board meeting for two reasons. First, the meeting ran nearly to one o'clock in the morning. Secondly, further cuts in the preliminary budget were made.

The board did adopt the principal's salary schedule. Starting at $6,550 and going to $8,650 in eight steps in $300 increments, it keeps close to the 1.5 ratio in teachers' salaries as approved by a joint teachers-administration committee.

The new schedule is $50 less per step than requested but includes a new, eighth step.

The administrators didn't do as well. The business manager's recommended increase of $440 was reduced to $100. The assistant superintendent was originally scheduled for $175 increase and he too was increased $100. Superintendent Byron Netzel, scheduled for $400 increase, in the light of the board's determination to keep the tax rate as low as possible, volunteered to forgo any increase at all this year. The board, at first reluctant, finally agreed.

In reviewing the proposed budget, the board reduced the general reserve fund $10,000 to $40,000 and the undistributed reserve funds $5,000 to $15,000. An estimate of budget reductions to date is $38,000. The final preliminary budget totaling $996,000 will be approved at the June 25 meeting and will be submitted to the county superintendent's office for review and approval by July 1. An increase of 9c to a total of 1.87 per $100 valuation is indicated. The $38,000, had it been left in, would have upped the rate 35c to $2.05.

A delegation of parents asked the board to review and reconsider a fall semester junior high music program. They asked it to be made compulsory for those who enrolled in it and that it not be made an elective during the proposed seventh period. Further study was ordered.

In other actions this week the board approved the bid of William Nienaber (Bill's Self Service) for gasoline and lubricating oil for the school district. They also approved preliminary plans for the new junior high school and the maintenance buildings and authorized Clyde Hufbauer, district architect employed on these projects, to proceed with working drawings of both projects.

Earlier this month the district filed applications with the State Department of Education and the State Department of Finance for a ten classroom junior high unit to be built on the West property. This will include a multi-purpose room and the principal's office.

Quotations from local brokers on automobile insurance, including comprehensive coverage, will be asked for at the next board meeting, Monday, June 25. Paul Reynolds, business manager, was instructed to place six acres of unusable land at the Monterey Heights School site on the market. This land, unsold to future development for school use.

Grove Post Office New Building Dedicated

Lemon Grove's new post office was "officially" opened to business and dedicated to postal service Saturday during a brief ceremony on the rear platform of the new building.

The words were those of O. H. Fuller, regional operations manager with offices in San Francisco. He presented a flag to Frenchy Faucher which he explained had been flown over the Post Office Department building on Pennsylvania Avenue in Washington.

He also credited Representative James Utt with making the new building possible sooner because of "his intense interest in postal affairs."

Representatives of various clubs were accorded seats of honor. Grove VFW presented the colors and John Dail presided as emcee.

The present post office operation is termed First Class and receipts last year were in excess of $120,000.

The building was constructed to post office specifications by GM, a private individual, then leased to the post office department on a long term lease as part of the department's commercial leasing program which Fuller explained was the only way possible to meet demands for new and larger quarters for many post office installations.

The officials of the department took part in a dinner at Michael's later in the evening at which safe driving awards were made to Elmer Blank, 1954 Fairhaven and Emile Rosati, 7694 Burnell.

Questionnaires the key

Broadway Improvement To Be Dropped If Owners Choose

No one other than the property owners who are involved will make the decision whether or not to improve Broadway, but the time for decision is here is what the Broadway Improvement Association, said in effect in a mailing piece issued this week.

The five page letter was over the signature of Harry Griffen, the association's chairman. The letter reviews events which started at the January 25, 1956 meeting at which he was named chairman. It listed all costs supplied by county agencies with explanatory notes accompanying.

In the letter he said available figures on cost are preliminary estimates and they are historically high, in many instances twice the actual completion cost.

He showed that money set aside to purchase rights of way could be used for the improvement if property owners would donate this part of the improvement. He had previously stated that payment for this property would be made by the county with money coming directly from these property owners and would represent an exchange of dollars which would increase the overall cost. He had also pointed out that land in the rights of way in question could not be utilized for other than parking purposes presently. He reiterated his belief that the cost of improvement could be made for an average of $16.10 per month cost on 50 foot frontage.

A comprehensive questionnaire accompanied the letter. It covered all possibilities of the scope of the project including that of not doing anything.

Future action will be decided on what these questionnaires indicate, Griffen stated. This determination will be made public as soon as the questionnaires are in and tabulated. Deadline has been established as June 15 for returning the forms.

'Complimentary Days' to Offer 'Savings' Aplenty

Merchandise is being stockpiled by Lemon Grove merchants to assure plentiful supplies of wanted summer items when the community-wide "Complimentary Days" selling event is held June 29, 30 and July 2.

Most all local business firms will take part in the promotion and practically every type of merchandise local consumers could desire will be offered at reduced prices.

"We want to point out that the event will offer 'savings' rather than 'bargains,'" reported Ted Skeley, chairman of the Merchant's Division of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, under whose aegis the event falls. Skeley explained that a "bargain" is an item bought expressly to sell at a reduced price. "Our group is committed to selling standard, first quality merchandise at less than normal price for this sale," he said.

The event takes its name from the fact that a preview, "Complimentary Day," will be held one day before the event officially gets under way. That day will be Thursday, June 28.

"We're attempting to prove again to local consumers that you can't get better merchandise at lower cost, anywhere," he added.

The Dimmer View

By MAX GOODWIN

If a guy was to take his reading seriously he'd be all mixed up all the time.

Every time one hypothesis gains fame or favor, you immediately find your reading laden with arguments to the contrary. This is true in newspapers as well as periodicals. It is as true in organizations. This makes for a topsy-turvy world. I have been mentally storing some good "examples." See how they strike you.

I recall a few weeks ago when a senate subcommittee on anti-trust and monopoly released a report under the direction of Sen. O'Mahoney, a Wyoming Democrat, which stated rather ominously that General Motors "extremely high profits" call for price cuts. Of course it was only a matter of hours until this philosophy was attacked by GM, since they had historically operated under the theory of what's good for General Motors is good for the people. They said the 119 page document reflected the same emotional, rather than factual, approach that pervaded the hearings themselves.

Payments Make Bias That makes it tough for a reader to understand which argument is right. You may be partially biased if you're driving a 1956 auto with 30 some-odd payments to meet.

A week or so later I came across a piece of intelligence that upset my sometimes calm outlook on matters of courts and liquor. This had to do with a 55 year old woman by the name of Mrs. Caroline Kiriluk who lives in Chicago. She shot her husband to death when he came home in a drunken rage and beat her. Her reaction was a little drastic, it seems, but a court decided her attitude to be rational. The unusual twist came when she sued the saloon in which her husband had been drinking. The jury awarded her $10,000 damages. What a field of contemplation this opens! Could you sue your favorite barkeeper for the payments on a General Motors car because you were under the influence of his stuff when you bought your Cadillac which the senate says is overpriced? Or make him pay for the dress you foolishly agreed to let your wife buy the day you came home from the bierstube with a small overload of malt liquor and generosity?

Equally confusing was the attitude of our county government in relation to one John D. Mueller, director of county welfare. Mueller and his staff had been charged by the 1955 Grand Jury with "waste and inefficiency," and recommended his dismissal. From other sources came rumblings of a more serious nature. Then came the county 1956 budget which was approved by the board of supervisors. What do you think was contained in it? A sizeable increase in wages for Mueller's staff but a king sized hike in pay for John himself.

This, of course, was negated by the taxpayers when they voted recently to turn the operation of this department over to the supervisors.

I guess this philosophy is really no different than that indulged in by the federal government in the case of the 360 pound tub-of-lard named Big Bill Lias who is a nationally known racketeer. A one time bootlegger and numbers king, Lias has for the past ten years been owner and general manager of the Wheeling Downs (Ohio) race track. The government sued Lias for some 2 1/2 million dollars in income taxes which he neglected to pay, and plans to send him back to Greece as an undesirable alien once the tax suit is settled. The government, to protect its claim, put Lias in receivership and took over operation of his track. What's more, they decided that the man most capable of profitably running the track was Big Bill Lias, himself. So they hired him; That makes Lias a federal employee since he is working for the income tax people. The amazing part is that he is being paid $35,000 a year, although he had asked $55,000 a year for his services.

So racketeer Lias has become the third highest paid employee on the federal payroll. The President is paid $100,000 and the chief justice $35,000.

It is indeed a topsy-turvy world.

Local Enlistments Grow in State National Guard Outfit

"Enlistments have quadrupled since March 1," Lt. Earl H. Borchert, commanding officer of the 498th Ordinance Company of the California National Guard stated this week.

"This can be attributed to the fact that the 498th is the only ordinance organization in the San Diego area, and interest displayed by the enlisted men of the organization. They have brought in their buddies, and their buddies' buddies," he added.

The 498th goes to camp June 30 where it has been designated as the recruit training company for its parent organization, the 175th Ordinance Battalion of Sacramento.

Bulk members of the 498th are made up of young men just graduated from, or soon to be graduated from local high schools. "We still have a few openings yet to fill for young men who have an obligation yet to serve," Lt. Borchert said, "and this obligation can be served without leaving home, except for the two week summer encampment. You can continue your education, start your careers, and not be interrupted by service in the armed forces. The 498th can give you on-the-job training in any automotive position."

Master Sergeant R. F. Davis, first sergeant, says there are a limited number of openings for veterans who can qualify for non-commissioned officers, and commissioned officers.

Members of the 498th from this area are:
Pvt. Leo A. Garcia of 2551 Sweetwater Ave., Spring Valley.
Pvt. Robert L. Hawkins of 4218 North Cordoba Street, Spring Valley.
Pvt. Ross A. Lewis of 9986 Estrella, Spring Valley.
Pvt. John L. Walter of 8638 Tracy, Spring Valley.
Pvt. Robert C. Burley, 6180 Citrus, Lemon Grove.

The 498th is sending ten men to the eight-week basic course at Fort Ord, California, offered to the National Guard by the Army; three men are enrolled for the six-month active duty for training program offered to the National Guard by the Army; three men to advanced leaders' courses at Fort Ord, California, and two men to cooks and mess management course at Fort Ord. This is the largest number from the battalion.

Girls' volleyball: Thunderbirds from San Miguel defeated the Explosives from Monterey Heights two games to one with a score of 15-3, 2-15 and 15-7.

On Saturday, June 9, the teams who were leading their leagues were the guests of the Padres. About 60 boys saw the Padres win a thrilling 4-3 decision over the L. A. Angels.

TOO-SHORT OFFICE HOURS LISTED IN NEWS STORY

A contrary printer, or a near sighted proof reader, or a combination of both, left out part of the office hours schedule that was to have been listed in the announcement of Dr. Virginia Molcolm's new offices in Lemon Grove.

So there can be no mistake we reprint them, this time in correct form. The open hours of Virginia Molcolm, M. D., are 9 to 12 o'clock daily except Sunday. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday the office will also be open from 3 to 5:30 p.m.

Community Chest Cabinet Seen For East County

Key community leaders of the east county area are scheduled to meet Friday for a luncheon meeting at the Foothills Restaurant to discuss plans for forming the area campaign cabinet of the United Success Drive, it was announced today by Chester L. Dorman and Mrs. William Hirsch.

Dorman and Mrs. Hirsch, members of the campaign cabinet of the United Success Drive, are both residents of the area.

Area cabinet members will be responsible for assisting in guiding United Success Drive policies and decisions, advising the central cabinet of special problems relating to this area, and provide representation at the top level in this effort for the Heartland area. Guidance in the actual campaign will also be provided by this group.

There has been concern in the past regarding health, welfare and youth services in this area, and our responsibility for their support. Some have felt that the picture has been clouded because of lack of understanding, and insufficient representation to voice our feelings. "In regard to this, we feel that this area cabinet idea has much merit," leaders said.

Drive representatives will be on hand to discuss the United Success story as it relates to the Heartland area. The formation of area campaign cabinets was recommended by the campaign cabinet of the United Success Drive at a recent meeting.

Area to be discussed includes Alpine, Bostonia, Dehesa, El Cajon, Fletcher Hills, Grossmont, Helix, Lakeside, La Mesa, La Presa, Lemon Grove, Santee and Spring Valley.

County Health Officer Urges Parents To Have Their Children Inoculated Now

Dr. J. B. Askew, Director of San Diego County Department of Public Health, said yesterday that through April this year only 37.3 per cent of the 188,000 persons eligible for the Salk vaccine had their first inoculations. He said statistics released by the State Department of Public Health indicated only 32 per cent of those eligible for the vaccine in this county had had their second shots.

More than 60 per cent of the persons in San Diego County who are eligible for Salk vaccine have not yet availed themselves of this protection against poliomyelitis.

"Summer is the poliomyelitis season," Dr. Askew said. "The disease hits its peak in the warm months. But parents who act now may protect their children against the disease through inoculation."

In California the vaccine has apparently reduced the incidence of paralytic polio by 75 per cent among children in the 5 to 9 age group who received one or more inoculations. Dr. Askew said. He added that statistics based on the vaccination program last spring indicate an approximately 60 per cent reduction of paralytic cases among children receiving a single inoculation and an estimated reduction of 85 per cent among children receiving two inoculations.

Here in San Diego County Dr. Askew said a study of children who received two inoculations last spring followed the same pattern and indicated the vaccine was approximately 86 per cent effective in preventing paralytic poliomyelitis.

The commercial supply of vaccine is expected to be more plentiful in the months ahead. The Department of Public Health will also receive additional shipments of vaccine for the public supply to augment the amount available through commercial channels.

"We hope that all parents who have not yet had their children protected by Salk vaccine will discuss it with their private physicians. It is in the public interest to expand our local vaccination program as quickly as the available supply of vaccine permits."

Harms to be Manager Of New Bank

For First National

Promotion of Bruce Harms to manager of First National's new branch at Euclid Avenue and Federal Boulevard has been announced by Anderson Borthwick, president of the First National Trust and Savings Bank of San Diego.

Harms, an assistant cashier, has been assistant manager of the bank's Lemon Grove branch since it first opened in 1949. He first joined the bank in 1936, starting as a messenger. Subsequently, he served in all departments of First National and received a series of promotions that led to his present position.

He attended local schools, graduating from San Diego High School in 1935. Higher education includes Balboa Law College and the American Institute of Banking.

Harms is well known for his example of service to his community in connection with civic organizations. He is president of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce and holds membership in the Lions Club, Los Lugares, Hi-12 Club and the Masonic Lodge. He is a past president of the First National Club, and formerly Secretary-Treasurer and on the board of governors of the American Institute of Banking.

Mr. Harms and his wife, the former Betty Jeter, have 3 children, Robert 15, John 13, and Christy 9.

Community Services Inventory To Be Made Public Monday

Recommendations of 500 San Diego citizens who have conducted a comprehensive study of health, welfare, and recreation services in this area will be submitted to the public at 7:30 p.m. Monday, at the Balboa Park Recital Hall.

The findings and recommendations were compiled by 30 study committees, under the auspices of the Community Welfare Council, as part of the area wide Community Services Inventory.

Robert F. Driver, chairman of the Inventory strongly urged citizens to attend this meeting because local health and welfare agency programs are aimed at meeting the needs of the community and each citizen should know what services are available and where unmet needs lie.

He pointed out that the inventory findings and recommendations will provide guide posts for future budgeting and planning for agencies as well as providing information to Community Chest Budget Committees so they may see clearly what directions their agencies should take and what is the most effective use of the Chest dollar.

SPIRITUAL FORCES DISCUSSED IN LESSON-SERMON

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the challenging subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches.

The vision of St. John, the Revelator, where he declares, "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea" (Revelation 21:1), is the high point of the Lesson-Sermon.

At Least One Mail Box Retains Original Color

Postmaster Faucher announced some weeks ago that anyone with a brush and some red and blue paint could get a contract to paint mail boxes in this area. These are the boxes placed at various spots for deposit of mail, not the householders' boxes.

At any rate, the receiving box at northeast corner of Broadway and Imperial—the La Mesa-El Cajon Savings Association corner—is still a mottled green, as it has been for some time.

We happened to see it Thursday and it made us homesick. The green color has signified "mail box" for so many years that the new red and blue colored boxes give us a pleasant jar.

Incidentally, some folks west of Imperial find that the location of the new post office is not as convenient for them, and entails quite a walk. If they drive to the P. O. they find parking difficulties. One lady, who patronizes the P. O. daily with outgoing mail, remarked, "And when the ice cream parlor opens next to the post office, what are we going to do?"

TWENTY $50 NURSES' SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE GIVEN

To help eliminate the shortage of nursing personnel and to encourage more women to enter the nursing field the Nurses Training Institute of San Diego, has made available $1,000 in scholarships. Each of the five San Diego High Schools have been given four $50.00 scholarships.

There is definitely an acute shortage of trained women to fill the many positions in convalescent, rest homes and hospitals. There is especially a need for women to work in private homes to care for old people, convalescents, and mothers with newborn babies. One of the aims of the Nurses Training Institute of San Diego is to prepare women for a combination of domestic and private duty nursing in the home.

Those women who are single stall a "convenience box" for autoists, so they can drop the mail in without having to park. La Mesa has such a box, at the curb in front of the building, and it is liberally patronized. San Diego's main P. O. has such a box and at 5 p.m., a clerk is stationed there to accept mail from autoists who drive up with their mailings.—D.H.

Local Kiwanis President and Veep To Go to San Francisco Convention

The two ranking officers of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis club, together with their wives, will attend the 41st annual convention of Kiwanis International June 17-21 in San Francisco. They are Drs. Robert Swenson and Simon Brumbaugh, president and vice president, respectively, of the Lemon Grove club.

They will join more than 14,000 other kiwanians and their wives at what promises to be the largest convention in the organization's history. The convention will be held in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium.

Among the speakers at the five-day meeting, in addition to Kiwanis International President J. A. Raney, will be The Honorable John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State, The Honorable George N. Craig, Governor of the State of Indiana, and Mrs. Spencer Tracy, wife of the well-known motion picture star, and a celebrity in her own right. Raney will deliver the convention key-note address, "Build as Free Men," on Monday evening.

Bob Fitzpatrick Attends Royal Wedding

Fitzpatrick

HOHENFELS, Germany (Sp.)—Army PFC Robert C. (Bob) Fitzpatrick, 21, son of Mrs. Cleo Villavicencio, 10455 Rancho Rd., is participating in field training exercises with units of the 6th Infantry Regiment in Germany. Regularly stationed in the isolated city of Berlin, the regiment holds annual summer training in Germany's western zone. The exercises include tactical problems under simulated combat conditions and range firing.

Fitzpatrick, a rifleman in the regiment's Company C, entered the Army in August, 1954 and received basic training at Fort Ord, Calif. He arrived in Europe in January, 1955.

Private Fitzpatrick recently returned to camp after a 30 day furlough, on which he toured Europe. He was at the Grace Kelley-Prince Rainier wedding and took some beautiful colored pictures which have been enjoyed by many in his camp.

He will return to the United States in July, according to his mother, and will receive his discharge in August.

Fitzpatrick is a 1953 graduate of Grossmont High School. It was there he received a scholarship to Santa Ana College, where he intends to take an engineering course. He was born in Los Angeles and attended grade school in El Cajon.

Grossmont High School Orchestra and Band Present Annual Awards Banquet

The Annual Awards Banquet, sponsored by Grossmont Band and Orchestra Parents Club was held in the Cafeteria on June 4. It was a gala event, with 300 proud parents and pupils present.

Student volunteers, mostly boys, set the tables and placed salad at each place, and the guests passed in line before the serving tables, where the men teachers wearing aprons helped fill the plates with Roast Turkey, Dressing, Mashed Potatoes, Frozen Peas and Pecan Pie. The salad was rightly named "Perfection."

First serving of coffee was by two men teachers, one to place the cups and the other to fill 'em. Seconds on coffee were put out by handsome male students.

The ladies who sponsored the banquet, ten were mentioned on the program — were fine cooks, and the lady who made the Pecan Pie will get our vote if she ever runs for office.

Director Arthur C. Schwuchow was Master of Ceremonies when the time came for making the awards. Arnold Kloven welcomed and introduced the guests.

Guest Speaker, Norman Rost, who directs the State College Band told entertainingly of his acquaintance with Mr. Schwuchow — they went to college together — and of his experiences with music students.

Grossmont Letters were awarded to two years participation members, band or orchestra pins were given to three year participants, and four year participants in musical activities were awarded Band or Orchestra Keys.

This reporter sat next to a charming lady who obligingly passed the butter and rolls and olives and pickles, and we asked her if she was a student. She smiled and said, "No, but I have a daughter who will graduate next year." (The daughter was given a special award for her work as Secretary of the Band, and came back and shed a few tears of joy, as did a couple of other girls who received unexpected awards. The boys didn't shed any tears when they got their pins, but they walked away pretty straight.)

Grossmont's Blue and Gold Band is famous for winning the Long Beach trophy for three years in succession. The band and their rosters leave about 2 a.m. in busses for Long Beach, strut their stuff in competition with some 60 other bands, and get home about 3 the next morning.

This past year the band of some 90 pieces was divided when about half of the members went to the new El Cajon High, and it was feared that Grossmont would not take the honors at Long Beach, but Director Schwuchow, a new man on the job, quickly got the musicians in shape and "they did it again."

Besides the ten Parent Sponsors the Banquet was sponsored by 33 Community Sponsors. The event was a very happy one.

Jehovah's Witnesses Plan S. D. Convention

The La Mesa congregation of Jehovah's witnesses are making preliminary plans to attend a three day convention at San Diego, it was announced last night.

Edgar A. Flinn, presiding minister of the group in discussing this announcement to the congregation pointed to the challenge to Christian works and Christian thinking in the rising tide of delinquency and distrust.

"The object of the program," Flinn said, "is to equip every one of the preaching society of Jehovah's witnesses in the practical use of the Bible as a help in fortifying the spiritual morale of the people in our community."

"Highlighting the convention will be the first showing of the new film, 'Happiness of the New World Society,'" Flinn said, emphasizing "that if a religion is worth believing it is worth putting into practice and enjoying."

The convention program is scheduled for June 22-24 at the San Diego Coliseum.

Annual Jamul Barbecue To Be Sunday Noon

The Jamul Barbecue will be held on Sunday, at the school grove in Jamul. Barbecue dinner will be served between 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. In addition to the dinner, there will be dancing and other varied entertainment as well as the awarding of prizes. Donations of $1.50 for adults and 75c for children will be used to improve the Youth Center.

As Election Day Comes to Lemon Grove

Democrats, Republicans and Non-Partisan voters celebrated Election Day, June 5, long awaited as a day to solve some problems that have been bothering the electors for months. While no fisticuffs have been reported, adherents of Estes Kefauver, from Tennessee have argued long and loud against Adlai Stevenson, Ex-Governor of Illinois.

One lady's principal argument against Adlai was his not being a married man, and she thinks the President should have a wife.

On the other hand, several distinguished forecasters of events political have stated frankly and repeatedly that neither of the above mentioned gentlemen has a chance at the nomination, and mention various other gentlemen as having better chances.

Through all the arguments, Republicans wearing "I like Ike" buttons, have smiled in a superior manner.

The list of voters and their political leanings was hanging outside each of four polling places we visited Election Day. It seemed to us that a quick glance showed more "D's" in the last column than "R's". We still have to wait 'til November to know.

GROVE HAS 26 PRECINCTS
We visited four of the 26 precincts on Tuesday p.m., starting with 7642 North Avenue, Precinct 3, where we found five ladies and one gentleman officiating.

The gentleman was Robert Marlin, Inspector, seated between two ladies. He seemed to be enjoying his work, merely grinning when we congratulated him on having a "sinecure." He said "what is that?" and we defined it as a soft job, with five ladies to do the work. Mr. Marlin said "this is not work but wait till the polls close. Plenty to do then."

Voter No. 80 at this precinct was Marie Clark Massey and her sister-in-law, Marie Massey, who was No. 81. Both ladies gave their address as 7621 Lemon Avenue. The clerks had some difficulty in getting the correct names on the register, but one lady showed her sample ballot and that was fixed up.

The conversation got around to dresses when this reporter asked what kept the skirts of the teen-ager rounded out so nicely. Two ladies answered at once "six or eight undershirts, each with at least two ruffles." Prices of these undershirts range from $3.95 to $9.99. My daughter and I copied a $9.99 slip. Lot of work but my daughter helped.

A cute little kitten played on the floor, finally chased its mother, a black cat, down and had a little lunch. Then the mama cat went down the covered driveway and was petted by an incoming voter and three Tribune carriers who were wrapping their papers preparatory to delivery, about 100 papers to each carrier.

Precinct 3 has 260 registered voters, and the officials anticipated a heavier vote after five

Aqua Colored Ballot

Next stop was Precinct 2, 3991 Massachusetts Avenue, with 91 votes in at 4 p.m. and a registration of 244. Democrats got yellow ballots, Republicans drew a light blue — one lady said "Aqua colored" — ballot, while the Non-Partisans drew a Salmon Pink ballot.

Mrs. Alexander, in whose garage the voting was done, when asked if anything had happened to mar the day's happiness, said Peanut, a guinea pig, had died, and the children didn't know it yet. Peanut was put outside in the back yard early in the day, and the sun was too much for it.

We took two new subscriptions to THE REVIEW — the ladies wanted the coupon books — and thought we had done pretty well 'til we got back to the office and learned that Dave had grabbed four new subs at a Polling place he visited, Dave is circulation manager.

Next stop was Precinct 7, 6905 Central, 273 registered and 100 votes cast at 4:30, with expectancy of a substantial vote after 5 p.m. when the men came home. Dorothy Douglass was knitting a potholder, to pass the time, she said. Ruth Tanner had a coat over her shoulders and a lap robe over her knees. Said she had a sore throat and felt miserable, but she was going to stick it out.

Fruit Jars Aplenty

Next and last stop was a Precinct 8, 7220 San Miguel, 105 votes, 277 registrations. All three Polling places we had visited were in garages, the walls lined with preserves and fruit besides other articles in storage, but Mrs. Adamski explained that the owner had put all her stuff in a refrigerator and locked it. The lady next to her said "Don't you believe her. She's the owner and fed us cheese cake and coffee for lunch."

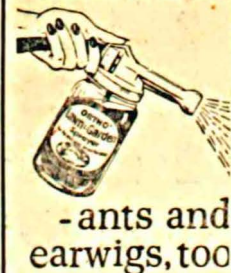

Lady at the end of the table, Inspector Taylor, said to tell the editor that her name is "Lucille" and not "Ruth", as he had it listed, and she wanted the error corrected.

Mrs. Adamski, when commented on the ample room provided, said they had two cars and the Mister had one and her car was parked outside.

Lucille Taylor said for us not to tell about Mrs. Adamski serving lunch or the ladies then officiating would loose their jobs next time. "Too much competi-

U. S. NATIONAL TO OPEN THREE NEW OFFICES

Opening of the newest office of the U. S. National Bank at La Jolla next Monday was announced today by L. H. Dufferder, senior vice president of the fast-growing, popular banking organization. The La Jolla office will be the eleventh for the bank. It is located at Girard and Kline Sts.

Opening of the new office in Orange has been scheduled for June 25. The enlarged office in Arcadia will open June 25, while the large new office of the bank in El Monte is scheduled to open June 30.

The Lemon Grove branch of the bank was opened just a year ago on June 13. It has since had to move to larger quarters because of unprecedented growth, according to Arnold Smith Jr., bank manager.

STATE CALLS FOR MORE ENGINEERS

Electrical and mechanical engineers are urgently needed by the Division of Architecture as a result of its expansion and construction program, the state petition.

The vote in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, as you doubtless already know, helped elect David Bird, Supervisor, Second District; helped Congressman Utt get on the ticket in November; amend the County Charter and authorized the Water Board to incur indebtedness out of funds received.

This latter has nothing to do with the Irrigation District.

Chicken Inspector Classification Opened by State

As a result of the new California law requiring state inspection of poultry processing plants after July 1, 1956, a new classification, Poultry Plant Sanitation Inspector, has been added to the list of civil service positions to be filled by open, competitive examinations.

The salary for these positions ranges from $341 to $415 per month at present. A general increase of State salaries is expected by July 1. Other advantages of state work are: a 40-hour, 5-day week; 3 weeks vacation, 11 paid holidays; annual salary increases, generous paid sick leave and a comprehensive retirement plan.

The work will consist mainly of inspection of equipment and methods used in poultry processing and the enforcement of state laws and regulations. The positions are located throughout California with the Department of Agriculture.

Interested persons with the following background may qualify for the entrance requirements and should file for the statewide examination: One year experience in governmental poultry inspection or sanitation; two years in poultry quality control; or education equivalent to graduation from college, with appropriate majors.

The examination date has been set for Saturday, June 30. Further information may be obtained from the Department of Employment office on Columbia St.

SHEARER SAYS 'THANKS' FOR VOTES IN PRIMARY

Bill Shearer, Republican candidate for Assemblyman in the 77th District, this week thanked the voters of Lemon Grove for their support in the June 5 primary. Shearer won the Republican nomination, and also received over 2,800 Democratic votes.

Shearer said, "I want to express my sincere thanks to all those in Lemon Grove who voted for me, and who worked so tirelessly in my behalf. I am grateful to both the many fine Republicans and Democrats who supported my candidacy. Our victory at the polls was more a victory for these good people than for me personally."

"With the primary behind us, we may now proceed with our general election effort. I promise my friends that I shall labor 24 hours a day if necessary to carry the district in November. With the continued help of my wonderful supporters, I feel confident that we shall carry the district," Shearer said.

Lemon 8'trs to Dance Aboard Carrier

By ALICE O. WILBER

The Lemon Eighters will be squaring up for their regular Thursday night dance this week at Friendship Hall.

After a hard but merry month of May, we might be expected to take things kind of slow and easy. But not such a hearty lot as we! This is the month for square dancers. The National Square Dance Convention will bring dancers here from all over the nation.

The biggest part of this activity for the Lemon Eighters will be the Trail End Dance on June 21 aboard the USS Kearsarge, Navy aircraft carrier, 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. Hosted by the Heartland Federation this dance, for square dancers only, is expected to draw thousands.

The Lemon Eighters and three other clubs of this area will have members serving as greeters aboard the Kearsarge. The remaining members of these clubs will work in the parking area. This limits our dancing time aboard the Kearsarge, of course. Who knows, such inveterate square dancers as we are liable to bring our own music and dance in the streets!

With this dance, plus the dances around town planned to take place directly following it, plus a weekend of dancing at the convention June 22, 23 and 24, our party night coming up Thursday, June 28 will find us "Too Pooped to Pop."

FOOTHILLS ART GROUP TO HAVE ILLUSTRATED LECTURE

The La Mesa Foothills Art Association will hold its regular meeting at the La Mesa Woman's Clubhouse on Wednesday at 7:30 P.M.

Mr. Warren Beach, director of San Diego Fine Arts Gallery will present an illustrated lecture on "Main direction in Modern Painting."

All interested are invited. Refreshments and visiting will follow the lecture.

TO THE LOVELORN! How To Make Her Care

By Bob Turnbull
Teen Age Editor

Fellow male conspirators, attention! Have you suddenly been shocked to realization that the gal next to you in your classroom, office or bus is "the one for you." It's happened before, I know. And to make matters worse, you know neither her name, address, phone number nor other bits of valuable info for the prized black book. Face it, you've undoubtedly experienced this predicament in the past, or maybe at the present. If not it will surely smack into you in the future. So go Boy Scout on us and "be prepared." Read on and maybe this article will open a new world for you!

"NORMAL PROCEDURE"

Just blurt right out and ask her for her name and residence facts. You could be Dick Tracy about it and slyly peek into her purse. But for modern dignified manners, continue.

"THE TIGER APPROACH — A"

This popular approach should be exercised only if all others meet with flacco. Set a gigantic firecracker under her chair and place a match to it. While giving her artificial respiration, the "real" respiration or visiting her at the hospital you could get her name.

"THE TIGER APPROACH — B"

Size her up in a second of day-dreaming, leap on her like a stalking lion and violently demand your information. Several gals, however, have taken excellent judo courses from Leo Stern's gym, and if fate plays havoc with your particular partner, you may come out of the skirmish with your desire to meet her somewhat diminished.

"THE TEAR-JERKER APPROACH"

If you can, find out if she has a morbid interest in rings, then wear one and she will ask you why! Cry in a towel and tell her you've been jilted in a love affair. She will either take maternal pity, or else feel that since you've goofed once you'd do it again and call you stupid.

"THE SYNDICATE METHOD"

Get two American greenbacks in the high priced bracket and wrap them around some stage money. Flip the roll in her presence. Then just sit back and wait.

"UNDERHANDED STYLE — A"

Fake through a poll. Make it closer to Gallup, not a Hollywood inspection tour.

AND

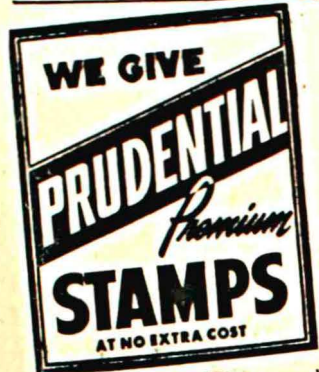

"UNDERHANDED STYLE — B"

Swipe her purse or billfold. If and when she advertises for its return wait and see if she posts a reward. Refuse it. She just might like your honesty. But, of course, if the contents of your stolen articles is valuable, keep it. Look for a new doll! Start all over, again!

Small Claims Court Has Busy Session— Some Traffic Cases Filled Out Program

Judge Hussey's calendar was well filled last Monday. Several small claims cases were called, McMahon vs. five different debtors. None of defendants appeared, nor did McMahon's representative. Possibly the cases were settled out of court.

Two gentlemen from Texas were cited for acting as contractors without a license. The gentlemen, brothers, both pled not guilty, asked for trial by the court. Case was set for June 13 at 2 p.m. when a deputy district attorney will be on hand to represent the people.

It cost Arthur Beckwith $32 for not having an operator's license and having a defective muffler, since repaired.

John Mason, charged with operating a truck without a license, pulled a letter on the judge, showed that truck had recently been purchased but the plates had not been supplied. Some difficulty about the transfer of ownership. Hutchison Co., Mason's employer, owner the truck. A defective stop light cost Mason six bucks, which he paid to Delores Rogers and got a receipt.

Verna Young Chesebrough, charged with excessive speed, 30 miles where 15 was indicated, for safety, and a collision resulted with no bodily injury, pled innocent. Her case was set for trial June 14 at 2:30. "Bring your witnesses," the court said.

Jerry Lacey and his Paw came to the front when his case was called. Jerry was charged with passing another car on the wrong side of the white line. The wrong passing took place on Sweetwater Road near Lamar. It was Jerry's first ticket, and the judge asked Jerry if he realized that his Paw had made himself liable for any damage Jerry might cause when his father signed the application. Jerry didn't speak up very loud, and his Paw spoke up, said Jerry was a good boy and a good driver, and he was sure that the boy would not offend again. Judge Hussey told Jerry his Paw was liable up to $5,000 if a serious accident happened while the youth was driving, asked if he realized that he had let his Paw down. Then the judge said, "No fine, but don't come back," and Jerry and his Paw thanked the court and left.

Austin Miles of 1719 El Rojo, charged with violation of Sec. 502 of the vehicle code—drunk driving—was called. Miles said he had a heart condition and had to take a stimulant. Asked how many drinks he had had that day, Monday, he said "one." "How come I can smell liquor clear across this desk?" said the judge. Marlow's case was set for Thursday, when he was fined $263, $105 suspended and given 12 months probation, and the court ruled that the bond could continue in force until that time. Drunk driving is a pretty serious offense, and a second ticket on that charge can result in a heavy fine and loss of driver's license.

One man was fined $6 for having a defective stop light. He used plastic to cover the light, but it wasn't red enough.

Lula May Stewart pled guilty to having let her operator's license expire. She showed the judge her new one, which she said was harder to get, and the court suspended the fine, and Lula May left, after thanking his honor.

Ralph Smith, 18, who drives a delivery truck for a Spring Valley drug store, pled guilty to a charge of driving without due caution. (He was driving his own car, not the truck) and his fine was $101, with $85 suspended. Ralph said he was paying $41 per month on his car.

Wilson Washburn, 15, who lives in Fletcher Hills and attends Grossmont High School, was accompanied by his Maw when his case was called. He was charged with driving without due caution and a rear collision with another car. Said he drove his car to school. His left arm was in a cast, not caused by this accident. He got a pointed lecture from Judge Hussey and was warned.

that this was his fourth ticket and any further violations might result in a letter from Sacramento that would cancel his license. His Maw didn't say anything.

Paul Eugene May, 18, was next to the bar, charged with entering Ace Drive-In Theater without payment for ticket. Joe Shure, complaining witness, said he had been bothered considerably by youths driving in without paying, and he thought it should be stopped. Said he had no hard feelings, and was willing to withdraw the complaint when the judge pointed out that the boy's record would be marred. The case was dismissed.

Two colored men, one short and the other over six feet, (the big one said he worked at North Island) were charged with stealing dirt, top soil, from private property. Asked how they pleaded, the short man said he thought the case had been settled when they agreed to pay the land owner $15. That amazed the judge, who told the men to get their witnesses. Considerable telephoning was done, and after a wait of a half hour the big man's parents appeared and the case was called. The complaining witness told his story, said he had been missing top soil and junk from his place and that at least two loads of soil had been stolen. The men denied having taken more than a couple of wheelbarrow loads of dirt. The judge, after listening to the culprit said "Fine $100 each, with $75 suspended on each." The big man said he had $42 in the bank, the little man had no money on him, so the man with money in the bank gave clerk Delores Rogers a check for $25, being half of the fine for each one, and the balance will be brought in on Friday, when "Shorty" gets paid, "or else."

Miss Billie De Vere, proprietor of a mimeographing shop, appeared at this time carrying a yellow tomcat in a parakeet cage. She was plaintiff in a small claims case wherein she sued Dr. McKenny for $40. Alleged that she had taken her cat "Gumdrop," to the doctor's veterinary hospital, to be treated for bowel trouble and a fever of 103 degrees. After leaving Gumdrop at the hospital for 21 days she said the attendant asked that the cat be left for two days more, which she did, but when she finally came to get the cat he was lame, and seemed to have a broken leg.

Miss De Vere then took her pet, which is "half Siamese and half cat," to another veterinarian, who gave the cat a shot of X rays and discovered a broken leg.

The second vet's bill was $59. In the meantime Dr. McKenny sent Billie a bill for $440. Dr. McKenny testified that neither he nor his assistants had any knowledge of the cat's broken leg, offered to dismiss his counter suit if Miss De Vere would dismiss hers, and it was so ordered. Now all the lady has to pay is the bill for $59 which she got from the second vet.

During the argument, Gumdrop let out a couple of yowls at different times, but calmed down when spoken to by his mistress.

Miss De Vere says she has five cats at home.—D.H.

RESULTS GIVEN IN GROVE VALLEY PONY LEAGUE

In a double header baseball game at the Lemon Grove Jr. High last week the first game was won by the Lemon Grove Merchants over the Lemon Grove Sporting Goods, by a score of 12 to 8. In the second game the U.S. National Bank came out on top in a closely held game of 12 to 11 over the S&M Sporting Goods. This game was the 10th game of 22 games to be played in the 1st half of the series which will end on June 30th. The 2nd half of the series starts on July 3rd with the playoff on Aug. 12th.

The Lemon Grove Merchants can beat their chests at the moment; being in the lead 2 games. They have only lost one game in 5 games played to date. They were defeated the only time on June 6th by the Lemon Grove Sporting Goods. It is too early to predict the over all winner. Anything can happen from now on out. The U.S. National Bk. came from the bottom to make a 3 way tie for 2nd place with the Lemon Grove Merchants & S&M Sporting Goods. All 3 teams respectively having won 2 games and lost 3.

A game between the S&M Sporting Goods & Lemon Grove Merchants is to be played June 12th at 5:00 P.M. at the Spring Valley Jr. High. L.G. Woman Named Director of Nurses At L.M. Hospital

Margaret B. Ross, R.N., has taken the position of director of nurses at the La Mesa Community Hospital, according to John Gorby, administrator. Mrs. Ross, formerly assistant supervisor of nurse, evening shift, Grossmont Hospital, will be in charge of 52 employees including nurses, Gorby said.

Mrs. Ross has had 16 years of experience in nursing. She was graduated from the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Indianapolis, Ind. and has been an Army nurse.

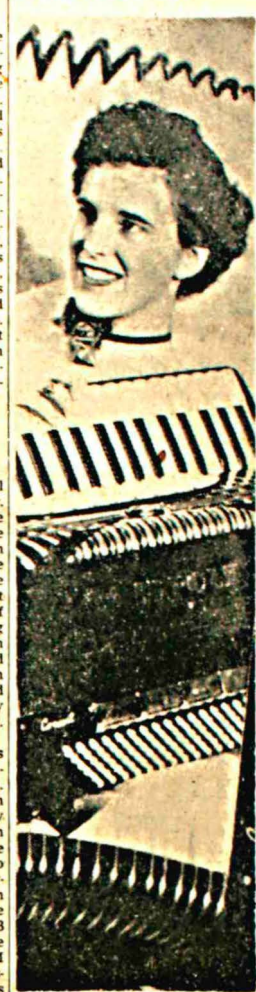

She and her husband, and two children live at 7157 Baldwin, Lemon Grove, and are former residents of Spring Valley. The children attend Golden Avenue school.

Mrs. Ross said that among the highlights of her career was serving as a surgical nurse in Indiana during the delivery of a two-headed baby. Mrs. Ross said the case attracted nation-wide attention. The baby lived only a few months however.

Mrs. Ross said she appreciates the opportunity to serve residents of the community in her new position. Gorby said her job is the most responsible in the hospital, she will be in charge of all patient care, carrying out doctors' orders, employment of nurses and dietary regulation.

Mrs. Genevieve Ackert, R.N., who recently moved to Florida, was supervisor of nurses. Gorby said he is confident that Mrs. Ross's experience and ability will enable the hospital to continue the high standard of nursing that La Mesa Community has always offered.

SPRING VALLEY MUSICIAN TO TOUR EUROPE

Miss Prasser

Carol Prasser, 18, San Diego State College music major, will tour Europe this summer with a Fred Waring group of all-college students.

The show, called "Kids from Home," will play at European military bases and will include orchestral music, singing and dancing. Producer is John M. Dalph, director of the Fred Waring TV show.

Students were chosen from colleges all over the United States. Each must be a singer and play an instrument.

Miss Prasser is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Prasser of 1951 Avon Lane, Spring Valley. She attended the Balboa Elementary School in San Diego, the La Mesa Junior High School and then graduated from Helix High. She is an accordionist and a coloratura soprano. For three years she has taught accordion and for the past two years has been studying voice with Fred Flannigan of La Mesa. Her ambition is to become an opera singer.

At one time Miss Prasser wrote a column for the Spring Valley BULLETIN, "How About That?" Also going on the tour from State will be Louis Repaci, 19, who plays sax, clarinet, flute and piano. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Repaci of Linda Vista. He is studying with Russell Cheever of the 20th Century Fox orchestra in Los Angeles. His ambition is to get into a motion picture orchestra or television.

Both Miss Prasser and Mr. Repaci were on the Harold Keene People in the News program on Monday evening, May 28.

Rehearsals for the show will start June 15 in Amherst, Mass., then a week's tour of Massachusetts before leaving for Europe on July 1. The two State College musicians should return home about September 1.

Donations to Edgemoor Farm: Ratification of acceptance, and for the addition to the inventory of the Department of Medical Institutions of the following donations:

90 boxes of Carpet Wrap, estimated value $540, donated by American Red Cross; 1 Metal Invallex Walker, inventory value $10, donated by Mrs. Luella Mitchell; 12 Paintings, appraised value $225.50, donated by the La Mesa Junior Women's Club.

To County Hospital: 1 Card File and Base, and Esophagoscope, total inventory value $402.00, donated by the San Diego County Hospital Medical Research Foundation; 1 Radio, inventory value, $20.00, donated by the City Service American Legion Auxiliary No. 537.

The County medical institution at Santee was, after discussion, officially named "Edgemoor Farm," the name adopted some years ago, when farming operations on a large scale were carried on. There is little farming done there now. Edgemoor Farm was so named by the former owner, W. H. Dupee, a Chicago millionaire who had a herd of thoroughbred Guernsey cows on what was known to Old Timers as the Cole Ranch, later as Santee, after Mrs. Cole was widowed and then married Mr. Santee.

Mr. Dupee, who lived at Hotel del Coronado winters, found that it cost him about $2 per gallon to produce lactical fluid, and after bucking the opposition for a couple of years decided to sell "Edgemoor Farm" to the county for a fair price and let somebody else carry the banner. When Prohibition came along, Mr. Dupee bought the entire stock of fine wines and whiskies and took them to Chicago, much to the regret of several Coronado gentlemen who had been intimately acquainted with the various vintages that were no longer available.

3rd Board Member

Elmer P. Leffert, deputy County Auditor — he is the head of the Tax figuring Section for Auditor Perrigo — has been nominated by County Employees' Retirement Board for election as Third Board Member to fill the position to be vacated June 30, 1956, to serve until June 30, 1959.

Total purchase price of $40,000 for property owned by Mrs. Herbert L. Morley for the San Marcos-Escondido sanitary fill, was authorized.

L.G. Youth Center

Letter from Department of Public Works recommending that an Agreement between the County and the Control Board of Lemon Grove Youth Center dated August 5, 1952 be revoked at the earliest possible date, since it conflicts with the Rules and Regulations Governing Use of Buildings in Community Center by the Board on May 22, 1956.

Recommendation of the Chief Administrative Officer that the Board direct the Purchasing Agent to lease, for County use, the building known as Sherman's Dance Hall, for a three-year period with an option to renew on a month to month basis with 60-day notice of termination, the rental not to exceed $165.00 per month. (Probation Department needs more room, have asked for 40 or 60 more men. Supervisor Austin remarked that surely we are not getting that bad hereabouts in such a short time. What we want to know is, "where are the sailor boys gonna dance?" —D.H.)

PROPERTY APPRAISERS URGENTLY NEEDED IN STATE SERVICE

Property appraisers for the Department of Veterans Affairs are in demand as never before, the State Personnel Board announced. The sizable increase in Cal-Vet loans granted at the recent legislative session is expected to result in a considerably heavier workload for the department's property appraisers when the legislation becomes effective July 1st.

The need for more appraisers is statewide, the board emphasized.

Further information and official application forms are available at Department of Employment offices on Columbia St.

GROVE MAN TO REPRESENT INTERNATIONAL DRUG FIRM

Pickens

Charles P. Pickens of 1850 Ensenada Street, has been appointed professional service representative in the San Diego district of CIBA Pharmaceutical Products Inc., it was announced by the New Jersey company.

He will call upon physicians and pharmacists in San Diego, Brawley, Chula Vista, Coronado, El Cajon, La Mesa, National City, Vista and smaller communities in the area.

Prior to joining CIBA, he was employed as a bacteriologist with the United States Navy 'civil service' in San Diego.

CIBA Pharmaceutical Products Inc. is a subsidiary of CIBA Limited of Basle, Switzerland. Opened in Summit, New Jersey, in 1937, the company now employs 1,200 people who are engaged in scientific research and in the manufacture of drugs known in the industry as "ethical" products.

PROGRAMS BEING SET UP BY JR. HI PTA

Members of the executive board of the Lemon Grove Junior High PTA and their husbands and/or wives were entertained by Mrs. E. F. Brady, president, at her home with a buffet dinner Friday.

After the dinner hour, there was a brief meeting of board.

The program committee for the year 1956-57 met Monday morning to plan the schedule for the coming year. Mrs. Casper Amundson, program chairman, presented tentative plans.

Refugees, Relatives Of Local Family Receive Visas in Italy

Issuance of visas in Italy have been made for three future residents of Lemon Grove, according to a statement from Refugee Relief Program, Department of State, Washington, D. C., dated March 23.

The newcomers are Elvira Agostino Scali, daughter Caterina M. C. and son Pasquale S. A., from Palermo. Their sponsor is Rocco Pasquale Scali, husband of 3719 Vista avenue.

Issuance of Refugee Program visas in Italy is at the 45,474 mark, or 76 per cent of the 60,000 allocation of visas to Italy. (Total issuance of visas in the Refugee Program worldwide has topped 91,000.)

There has been a cut-off instruction regarding applications for visas under the Refugee Program in Italy. This cut-off was effective December 31, 1955. It was necessary because there were more applicants on record than the remaining visas allocated to Italy by the Refugee Relief Act.

In instructions to the consulates in Italy, Pierce J. Gerety, deputy administrator of the act, made the following points:

1.—The cut-off does not apply to escapees and orphan applicants who are processed under other sections of the Refugee Relief Act.

2.—Assurances received after the cut-off dates for the two countries are sent to the appropriate consular authorities to permit the applicant to establish a priority registration date under the normal annual quota of the Immigration and Nationality Act, since they cannot be processed under the Refugee and Relief Act.

Although the success of the program in Italy is assured (and also for Greece and for 3,000 refugees indigenous to the Far East), sponsors continue to be urgently needed for refugees in Germany, Austria and the Netherlands.

The pamphlet quoted above is List No. 5 and had 33 pages of names, from every state in the Union, giving the names of the migrants and sponsors.

We have been unable to contact Mr. Scali, sponsor of the three members of his family who will come over from sunny Italy to live in sunny Lemon Grove, but hope to do so very shortly.—D.H.

Gas Tax Money Apportioned In State

A record total of $26,026,618.55 of state gasoline tax revenues has been apportioned to 325 cities in California for street work during the current fiscal year, State Director of Public Works Frank B. Durkee announced today.

Last year's amount, the previous record, was $24,085,255.42.

The total apportionment to La Mesa for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1956, was $52,300.26. Apportionment to El Cajon was $53,470.83. Lemon Grove has approximately the same population as the above.

The gas tax given to cities is the revenue from five-eighths of a cent per gallon out of the state gasoline taxes paid by highway users and is apportioned by the State Division of Highways according to law on a population basis.

Durkee pointed out that this money allocated to cities is in addition to the funds expended on state highways within cities and included in the state highway budget by the California Highway Commission. Under certain conditions, however, the city may, in cooperation with the State Department of Public Works, expend portions of these funds upon a state highway.

State law requires the cities to expend at least 60% of this gas tax apportionment for construction on streets included in the major street system as designated by the city council and approved by the State Department of Public Works. Up to 40% may be spent for maintenance of city streets.

Although these city street projects financed with state gas tax funds require state approval, Durkee pointed out that in actual practice it is a matter of close cooperation between state and local officials to obtain maximum benefit from the funds in terms of service to traffic.

RAMBLIN' 'ROUND

Being somewhat concerned about the victims, where service men are involved in accidents, where "the cars go out of control" at 90 miles per hour speed, as to insurance, we called up the recruiting department of the Army, asked if these victims who are in service were insured, was told by the officer in charge that government insurance covers all men in all services, $10,000 but without service benefits in all cases.

What we were getting at was if their insurance applied to non-service injuries or death, and gathered from the information received that their insurance is paid to the beneficiaries in all cases where fatalities occur.—D.H.

Since the freeway opening to Broadway, traffic around 4:30 p.m. at Broadway and Imperial, east bound, seems to have doubled, so greatly that it is very hard for an auto to cross Broadway. I hope Hary Griffen can arrange for a flagman to stop Broadway traffic for north or southbound traffic at that point, say every 20 cars, so we can get home for a late supper.—D.H.

Vacant property in Lemon Grove is becoming scarcer day by day, and building permits for alterations, as shown in another column, indicate continued interest in this section.—D.H.

Since there is no way of patrons getting into the post office from the rear parking area, they are forced to use the front. Poor arrangement, say the complainants. Same amount of parking as neighboring retail stores afford, says the postmaster.

On the first pitch he wound himself up like the mainspring in a two dollar watch and let go. The unleashed tension sprung a leader in his ankle and he was laid up half a week. Horseshoe pitching at the plant is now restricted to those who can pass a good, stiff physical test.

Mt. Helix Council Announces Year's Accomplishments

Outstanding accomplishments of the PTA units in the Mt. Helix Council, CCPTA, for the year 1955-56 were reviewed during a recent meeting, according to Mrs. Don Irwin, president.

Mrs. James Gillelan, council program chairman, announced the names of unit chairmen whose programs received the rating of "outstanding." These programs were sent on to the state convention of the California Congress of Parents and Teachers for further review by the delegates.

PTA units receiving this honor were Casa de Oro, Fletcher Hills, Golden Avenue, La Mesa Dale, La Mesa Elementary, Lemon Avenue, Monterey Heights, Rolando Park, San Miguel, Spring Valley and Vista La Mesa. Bancroft Elementary and Murray Manor received an honorable mention award.

Council publicity chairman Mrs. C. M. McKenzie announced the award-winning publicity chairmen whose record books not only received certificates of achievement for meeting CCPT requirements, but who in addition received ribbon awards to indicate outstanding results. Among the gold ribbon winners was the Mt. Helix Council and the following units: Casa de Oro, Fletcher Hills, La Mesa Dale, La Mesa Elementary, Monterey Heights, Rolando Park and Vista La Mesa. Council members were proud to learn that the Vista La Mesa book representing newspaper, bulletin and poster publicity was one of the four books sent to the state convention in May by Ninth District CCPT as being worthy of special recognition and display for benefit of convention delegates. Mrs. H. K. Thurland, Lemon Grove, was responsible for Vista La Mesa PTA publicity.

Blue ribbon winners were Lemon Avenue, Rolando and Spring Valley PTA units. Golden Avenue PTA received a white ribbon.

Mrs. C. I. Peterson, council magazine chairman, informed members that the council had achieved honor roll status for having all board members subscribe to the Parent-Teacher magazine and that it had received honorable mention for outstanding work. She listed the following units as having also made the honor roll: Lemon Avenue, Rolando, La Mesa Dale, La Mesa Elementary and San Miguel. Magazine chairmen of these and other honor roll units were honored at a luncheon given by Ninth District.

As a fitting finale of the year's activities, three councils, El Capitán, Foothills Secondary and Mt. Helix, joined together under Ninth District leadership to provide a local-area PTA workshop recently in El Cajon for officers and chairmen of the three councils and their member units. With approximately 300 members attending, the workshop was considered a great success.

Dail and Betts Get Big Vote For Demo Central Committee

Two sterling citizens of Lemon Grove — Democrats — were candidates on the County Democratic Central Committee.

Five were voted for on the list of 12 candidates, and John B. Dail, Broker, received 8016 votes, while Bert A. Betts, Certified Public Accountant, and a dem good'un — was the recipient of 9464 ballots stamped with a cross.

The obliging young lady in Scott Palmer's shop who gave us these figures, said the total vote had not been tabulated, but it looked like Bert Betts squeezed through, but that Dail didn't make it. The job is purely honorary and carries no salary.

County Receiving Home Opens on County Hospital Grounds

The County Receiving Home, which will provide temporary shelter for dependent children under the care of the County Probation and Welfare Departments and of private social agencies, began operation June 1. This facility provides short-term emergency care for abused, abandoned, neglected and other children while a local agency is making plans for the future care of such children. Over the past 10 years there has been no central facility to provide such care. Children were placed in emergency boarding homes or on a temporary basis at the San Diego Children's Home. As these emergency homes were at different points throughout the County and frequently changing, much confusion resulted and welfare workers and police spent many additional hours in transporting children.

The newly opened Receiving Home is centrally located on the grounds of the County Hospital and will receive children at any hour of the day or night. Proximity to the County Hospital insures immediate medical care for children when required. The Home is equipped to care for children of ages ranging from infancy to 18 years. Equipped for a maximum of 60 children it is anticipated that the number of children under care will be about 45. Most of the children will remain at the Receiving Home for about 2 or 3 weeks.

Housemothers and counselors selected from County Civil Service lists will care for the children under the direction of Mrs. Carol B. McFadden, Superintendent. The Receiving Home is operated by the San Diego County Probation Department.

Cornelius Earns $5,000 Scholarship

Arthur Cornelius

One of the winners of the navy's $5,000 scholarship award was Helix student Arthur Cornelius, son of "Bud" and Mary Coffin, 8330 Alton Drive.

The award announcement was given last week when Cornelius was named along with several other Lemon Grove-Helix students. (See related story elsewhere in this issue).

Cornelius has elected to attend UCLA where he plans to major in international relations. He has been highly interested in civics throughout elementary and high school. Incidentally, his entire school career from kindergarten on, has been in Grove schools. He is among the top quarter of the graduating Helix class.

His appointment for the scholarship followed a navy test and physical examination. The $5,000 includes only $600 for living expenses; the rest being schooling costs. The scholarship obligates the student to three years active duty at the completion of college, and 5 years of reserve duty.

At present Cornelius is working as cook, part time, at Jack-In-the-Box on University to get together enough funds to augment the government's $600.

He starts under the scholarship next semester at UCLA.

Other scholarship winners: Tom Whalen, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mylo Whalen, of 3852 Carancho is planning to attend the University of California, at Berkeley. Gary Trushinski, son of Mrs. James B. Pearce, of 2973 Washington plans to attend Washington State.

Jim Waddle, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Waddle, 3161 Vista is not accepting his scholarship. He has been awarded admittance to the Air Force Academy in Denver, Colorado.

The youths must go into active Navy service for three years after they finish four years of college. The scholarships are worth $5,000 each.

Toastmasters Give Dr. Lillie Egg-Head Award

Charles Serr

The Lemon Grove Toastmasters Club held their weekly meeting at the Cafeteria of the Helix High School, earlier this month, with Charles Breuninger presiding. Dr. Tim Lillie, local dentist was the Toastmaster. (EMC) of the evening, and with a most unusual style, he produced many laughs, and had the members holding their sides at many times with his witty stories.

One of the reasons that the program was unusual, was the fact that out of seven possible scheduled speakers, only one was able to attend and so Dr. Lillie very slyly kept everyone in suspense as he pondered over the other nineteen attending, and, baiting each one, he egged out four volunteers, and their spontaneous efforts were the best we have ever had. Speaking impromptu were: Frank Swan, Eldon Cullen, Paul Haskins, and John Rittenour.

Awards for the evening were: Best Speaker-Eldon Cullen. Trophy presented by Bob Snow. Charles Serr presented the Best Evaluation Award to Orvin Berg. Paul Haskins awarded the Filler Sound Award (this is for the person using the most ah's, and's, etc.) to Dr. Lillie, who also won the Egghead Award (for the biggest unintentional BooBoo).

ship next semester at UCLA.

Tom Whalen, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Mylo Whalen, of 3852 Carancho is planning to attend the University of California, at Berkeley. Gary Trushinski, son of Mrs. James B. Pearce, of 2973 Washington plans to attend Washington State.

and this gave the Doctor the distinct honor of being the first person to win both awards in one evening.

Two guests were present, Ray Lillie (no relation to the Dr.) and Ed Trudell, a Navy man. Once again an invitation is offered to the public to visit the Club. An excellent place to build self-confidence, and courage and practice to talk to others who are in the same predicament.

Under the sponsorship of the public relations committee, the Toastmasters Club invaded the Rotary Club of Lemon Grove Monday at Michael's Cafe. Orvin Berg was toastmaster. After introductory remarks, the toastmaster explained that it would be difficult to condense a two hour Toastmasters meeting into a half hour, then proceeded to do so.

Charlie Serr was introduced as topic master and introduced several Rotary members who were also good Toastmasters. Some of the Visiting Rotarians were Toastmasters of other clubs. George Ficks gave a four minute talk entitled "A Backward Step in the Right Direction." Bob Snow gave a four minute talk entitled "The California Story," plugging the Fiesta del Pacifico. Mat Kellmen, production manager of the California Story, did likewise. Jerry Heath, president of the Balboa Toastmasters Club, evaluated the meeting, using Hugh Ramsdell and Earl Smart as individual critics.

The meeting was concluded precisely on time amid enthusiastic applause.

Here is a feat that other clubs could not undertake. It is not only a good experience, but builds good will and promotes new members.

Winner receives a $25 savings bond, gift certificates from various local merchants, a trip to Hollywood and a tour of 20th Century-Fox studios and trophies attesting to their accomplishments.

The winner will also reign as queen of the Lemon Grove Rodeo to be held July 21 and 22nd at St John of the Cross rodeo grounds.

A false note was struck in the proceedings when one of the contestants charged that one of the three winners had worn a padded bra in the swim suit section of the competition. This is strictly illegal according to national Miss America rules and regulations by which the Jaycee contest was judged.

One of the judges, Nida Olbrych, herself a model and contest winner in Maryland and Illinois, said that one contestant had complained but it was registered after the contest.

"If this breach of regulations did occur the time to register the complaint was during the contest. If the accusation was just the contestant would have been disqualified at that time," Mrs. Olbrych stated.

Miss Wilson will reign as Miss Lemon Grove in all events in which the community takes part until a new contest is held early next year, Chuck Johnson, chairman of the queen committee, said. Next year the winner will have an opportunity to enter the national contest.

Surprise Luncheon Honors

Mrs. Alexander

By MRS. H. K. THURSLUND

Twenty guests, members of the executive board of the Vista La Mesa Parent-Teacher Association, met at O Quinns Dining Room, La Mesa, Thursday for a surprise luncheon.

The event was in honor of their president, Mrs. R. C. Alexander, and to show the unbounded admiration they all shared as a result of their two years' experience under her inspiring leadership. This is justified by a letter that Mrs. Alexander's efforts have advanced the cause of PTA to a tremendous extent, in itself a considerable advancement.

Mrs. Alexander was presented with a gift in appreciation of all that she has done. Although at the close of this school term she will complete her second term as president, she will continue to serve the unit as parliamentarian for the coming term. Mrs. Alexander will also serve as treasurer for Mt. Helix Council PTA.

Mrs. Ray Bullock and Mrs. Henry Cowles were chairmen of the luncheon arrangements.

PLAY DAY HELD FOR GOLDEN AVE. SCHOOL STUDENTS

Wednesday, June 13, Golden Avenue School presented its Annual Spring Festival and Play Day under the direction of Miss Dorothy Sisti and Mr. Joseph Papin, co-chairmen of the event.

Opening ceremonies and folk dances by the primary children occupied the morning from 9:15 until 10:40.

At 11:00, the intermediate boys and girls reassembled as teams for the various athletic events. Teachers entertained the children by showing their skill at balloon blowing and potato-spoon racing.

Room mothers served punch in the rooms at the lunch period and at 1:30 the teams met again on the playground to compete in more games.

Dear Editor:
Maybe the solution is a Recreation District. That would cause a small additional tax against property in the area which would make up the district. Prospects do look dim for a full recreation program. Voters turned down a chance to supply Lemon Grove's needs in an election on incorporation early last year.

Dear Editor:
A La Mesa newspaper recently had a notice of its proposed new La Mesa Post Office and one interesting fact was stated "the site was chosen because there was parking space for 20 cars."

Lemon Grove has a new post office with a magnificent new parking area in the rear and no way to get to it except through the customer's entrance of the new ice cream lunch room.

In front (of the post office) is room for five cars but a telephone pole restricts the use of one space. One backs into Broadway traffic to get out.

Necessity may cause patrons at Christmas time to park across the street with the added hazard of crossing with packages to mail.

Who was the genius who planned the building?

Beatrice L. Morse

I understand the genius in the case is the District Post Office Building Division and it appears the director is Spartan in outlook, not only did he neglect front parking but he neglected the appearance of the building. To me it resembles a war-time barracks building. Any idiot might have thought to run a narrow canopy across the front to take away the unfinished appearance and to give some degree of window shading and improve the looks.

The parking isn't quite as bad as it now seems. Plans are to put a drive-in mail receptacle at one corner of the parking lot on Golden. Consideration is being given to setting up a parcel post station on the back platform come Christmas.

Dear Editor:

In reference to your June 7th article on check cashing charges by markets I think you are on the wrong track. What is the difference whether I hand the clerk a $100 bill or a $100 check. It has to be taken to the bank to be broken down in small change or put on deposit.

And as far as clerical help is concerned, they would have to have an office and a safe to keep their money in, and the clerk would have to make change and pay help and keep books for the business.

As you state it the poor wage earner has to pay the clerk's wages out of his earnings rather than the 75% mark-up on a big percent of things handled through the store plus a lot of junk they put up for sale, such as some cull vegetables put on their counters as potatoes, rotten, bruised and cracked at $10 a hundred pounds. Oranges at 10¢ a pound that rot in a refrigerator in a day or two.

Is it our fault that the poor grocer is going broke because he doesn't know how to run his business without penalizing the poor wage earner?

On thousand checks a week would pay a check cashier a mighty fine salary and some left over. That's only a small store.

More power to the poor grocer. Let him gouge the poor guys but don't you go making excuses for him for the grocer train has passed!

Chester Rhodes
3476 Citrus Street

Reader Rhodes is right. Grocers should sell groceries and not cash checks. Grocers, I understand, would like nothing better than getting out of the check-cashing business. Banks restricted hours would work a hardship on many wage earners if they couldn't use the market's banking facilities. That such a service is needed is indicated by what a banker told me last week. He said that his organization delivers $75,000 to a liquor chain every week on a short-term loan basis for check cashing purposes. Based on a three day loan the firm pays approximately $400 in interest alone.

This editor holds no brief for any kind of an overcharge on wage earners but the high cost of hiring help is best indicated by reader Rhodes' $100 check.

Dear Editor:
Joey Keebler, small son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Keebler of Vista La Mesa, departed from this world Sunday, June 3.

The enclosed poem was written to the family by an aunt of Mrs. Keebler, and explained to them more clearly than any words could why they should not wish for Joey to remain here, for you see, this little Joey, almost eight years old, has been a victim of cerebral palsy all of his life and is at last free of pain and braces.

The family wanted to share the poem with their friends in Lemon Grove and Vista La Mesa if you could find the space.

Thank you
A friend of the family,
Irene Thurlund

God's Wondrous Beautiful City
Heaven for all who believe
There was rejoicing within the gates

As God returned from La Mesa today,
Pressing to his Sacred Heart a sweet faced boy
Whom He brought here to stay.

Joseph had served his purpose,
sinlessly, but restricted,
While loaned to those, who had
for him great love.

He gave their lives a tender,
gentle meaning
That time and distance never can remove.

In Death's Magic touch are many changes,
Relief from every burden, every care.

In the fun and glee of God's playground of Heaven
Every child will have his equal happy share.

There're no weak, stiff arms or legs in Heaven,
They flutter like the free and flying birds;
If my feeble effort fails to reassure you
In the Great Book you will find His Wondrous Words.

If one thing remains unchanged in Heaven,
And somehow, I feel that there it is the same
As greeting new arrivals in life's nurseries,
"Child of my Child" grandparents all proclaim.

If this be true, behold that happy meeting:
Grandmother, Grandfather,
Grandson little Joe
Thrilling to the long awaited joy
That only loving Grandparents can know.

So weep not, my dears, but trust his wise discretion.
He knoweth what He doeth, He doeth all things well.
The longest life is only brief
Then together again, we will dwell.

Dear Editor:
Thanks very much for the fair way in which you treated my campaign.

I would like very much to convey my heartfelt thanks through your paper, to the many friends I have in the Lemon Grove and Spring Valley area. I am most grateful for their support.

Sincerely,
David W. Bird,
County Supervisor
